

Req Title: Data Engineer

Location: Within 2-hour radius of Woodlawn, MD

Key Required Skills:

- Technical experience in information architecture, data architecture, data modeling, data governance, ETL design, data quality and BI-analytics.

Job Description:

- Collaborate with Solution & Enterprise Architects, Business analysts, DBAs and others to understand business requirements.
- Provide suggestions and guidance to different MI/BI projects, based on best practices, optimal solutions, and project standards will be expected.
- Lead complex discussions and engagements that may involve multiple project teams from client.

Basic Qualifications:

- Bachelor's or master's degree in a training related field or 8 years of experience in lieu of a degree.
- Technical experience in information architecture, data architecture, data modeling, data governance, ETL design, data quality and BI-analytics.
- Strong working experience with SQL and other databases (i.e., DB2 and Oracle)
- Strong working experience with BI Development (i.e., Tableau and other BI tools)
- Strong working experience with ETL development and methodologies.

Required Skills:

- Strong oral and written communication skills and ability to communicate with all levels within the organization
- Strong data analysis and problem-solving skills
- Strong interpersonal skills with ability to collaborate with others effectively and efficiently
- Ability to negotiate and compromise to convince internal and external parties to accept concepts, practices, and approaches of the area

Desired Skills:

- Database development skills
- Familiarity with data modeling (Erwin data modeler)
- Enterprise Data Catalog experience (Informatica)

Education and other qualifications:

- Master's degree and 4+ years of experience in an enterprise business architect field or bachelor's degree and 8+ years of experience in an enterprise business architect related field
- Must be able to obtain a Public Trust.